

Reverend Lea'Vee L. Jordan

Rev. Jordan was born in Charlotte, NC. Her parents, Dr. William M. Jordan, III and Mrs. Leve Espinosa, instilled in her at an early age, a love for God as they reared her in the Church of God In Christ under the leadership of the late Elder E.C. Cannon.

Rev. Jordan gave her life to Christ at the age of 10, preached her first sermon at 12, and was baptized with evidence of speaking in tongues at the age of 15. She became a Junior Evangelist, following in the footsteps of Mother Rosie Cannon, she travelled with her throughout North and South Carolina.

Always active in ministry, Rev. Jordan is an elder in the A.M.E. Zion church. She taught Adult Bible study at Rockwell A.M.E. Zion, she started the 'Christians in Cultural Arts' Initiative and the 'Taking It to the Street' Evangelism ministries at Little Rock A.M.E. Zion church and is a member of an International Intercessory Prayer ministry.

Rev. Jordan successfully pastored Wesley Chapel A.M.E. Zion church for six years, where she continued to minister through outreach; developing holistic ministries that empowered the community along with other programs that fed, clothed, and encouraged those in need. She is now pastoring at Zion Hill A.M.E. Zion church in Concord, NC. Her hopes are to continue a wholistic ministry that helps to heal, educate, and empower through, worship services, prayer meetings, bible studies and community outreach programs.

Rev. Jordan is a graduate of Howard University with a B.S. degree in Psychology. She studied Advertising Design and Commercial Arts at Central Piedmont Community College. Her theological studies have taken her from the New Bethel Bible Institute to Conference Studies with the A.M.E. Zion Church. She has completed Conference Studies and is pursuing a master's degree in Theology.

She has worked successfully in the mental health field and as an Advertising Designer at major companies, such as Bank of America, Compass Group and AREVA Nuclear Engineering. She now runs her own successful advertising design company, Sanctuary Advertising + Designs, LLC.

Rev. Jordan was married for 16 years. While the union ended in divorce, she is grateful for the time together and for the precious gifts of her two daughters. She is a devoted mother to Jourdan and Chloe Patterson.
